Gregory M. Garno practices in the areas of complex commercial litigation, banking litigation, professional malpractice, creditors' rights, and bankruptcy. He represents major financial institutions, corporations, fiduciaries, individuals, and governmental agencies in significant complex litigation in both state and federal courts, in both jury and non-jury matters and arbitrations. His commercial litigation experience includes contract disputes, business torts, director liability and corporate and shareholder disputes, collection matters, insurance, receiverships and fraud actions.

Gregory is "AV" rated by Martindale-Hubbell, and has been recognized as one of South Florida's "Up and Comers" and "Top Lawyers" by South Florida Legal Guide. He is a member of the National Association of Federal Equity Receivers (NAFER) and the trial section of The Florida Bar and a member of the Miami-Dade County Bar Association. Gregory is also an active member of the Children's Home Society of Florida, where he is a marketing outreach coordinator for the "Champions for Children" campaign.

Gregory is a member of The Florida Bar and admitted to practice before the Federal General Bar for the U.S. District Courts for the Southern and Middle Districts of Florida, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit, the Bankruptcy Bar for the Southern District of Florida and the U.S. Supreme Court. He is a 1996 cum laude graduate of the University of Miami School of Law, where he was a member of the Business Law Journal. Gregory earned a bachelor of science from Cornell University in 1993.
